

Report on “Express Yourself” under Swachhta Hi Sewa 2025

Date of the Event: Tuesday, 30th September 2025

Organizing Body: National Service Scheme (NSS), MNIT Jaipur

Venue: VLTC, Room L-101

Faculty Present: Dr. Rahul

Overview of the Program

The National Service Scheme (NSS), MNIT Jaipur organized an interactive event titled “Express Yourself” on 30th September 2025 at VLTC L-101 under the national campaign Swachhta Pakhwada. The purpose of the event was to provide students a creative platform to express their ideas, thoughts, and emotions on the importance of cleanliness and community participation.

Participants were encouraged to present their understanding of Swachhta in any form they preferred — poems, short stories, speeches, essays, or key points. The activity aimed to spread awareness about hygiene, waste management, and individual responsibility toward maintaining a clean environment.

The event was coordinated by the NSS team with the guidance and presence of the 4th Year NSS Advisor, who appreciated the enthusiasm and creativity displayed by the participants.

Round 1: Preliminary Round

The event began with a short introduction about the Swachhta Hi Seva initiative, highlighting its mission to promote cleanliness as a shared responsibility.

In the first round, more than 80 participants enthusiastically took part and shared their thoughts through short speeches, poems, essays, and creative ideas on the theme of cleanliness and sustainability.

Their expressions reflected real-life cleanliness issues and personal efforts to contribute to a cleaner environment.

Round 2: Final Round

From the first round, around 20 participants were shortlisted for the final round.

In this round, participants showcased their creativity through presentations, poems, speeches, and even rap performances, all centered around the theme of cleanliness and civic responsibility.

The diversity of ideas and styles highlighted the awareness, talent, and social sensitivity among MNIT students.

Evaluation and Feedback:

The 4th Year NSS Advisor shared constructive feedback and praised the innovative expressions of the participants. He emphasized the crucial role of youth in building a cleaner and more responsible society through active participation and awareness.

Impact of the Program

The “Express Yourself” event fostered creativity, confidence, and civic awareness among students. It inspired participants to think beyond routine cleanliness drives and explore the ideological and emotional aspects of Swachhta.

Through expressive forms of writing and speaking, students realized the deeper significance of cleanliness — not just as a physical act, but as a reflection of discipline and collective responsibility.

Conclusion

The “Express Yourself” event under the Swachhta Hi Seva campaign was a successful and engaging initiative that encouraged participants to voice their perspectives on cleanliness and community service.

It reflected the NSS motto — 'Not Me, But You' — by promoting the idea that true change begins when individuals act selflessly for society's betterment.

The program concluded with a note of appreciation to all participants for their active involvement and meaningful contributions.

Prepared by:

HARSH RAWAT

General Secretary, NSS Club

MNIT Jaipur

