Objective: To nurture students' acting abilities and creative expression through monoact performances, helping them build confidence and stage presence.

Target Audience: MNIT students

3. Event Highlights

DESCRIPTION:

The competition witnessed a range of exceptional solo performances, each uniquely choreographed and well-prepared. The lighting and music arrangements were thoughtfully customised to complement every act, enhancing the overall theatrical experience.

The judges appreciated the high standard of performances, making the selection of winners a tough task. The winners were:

- First Prize: Shiv Parashar
- Second Prize: Vanshika Mittal
- Third Prize: Karishma Lamba and Shantanu Rana
- Consolation Prize: Anjali

The winners were felicitated with trophies and mementos in recognition of their efforts. Tokens of appreciation were also presented to the judges. The event concluded with inspiring remarks from the judges, motivating all participants to continue honing their craft.

ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED:

- Opening Ceremony: Formal welcome of judges and participants.
- Monoact Rounds: Individual performances in scheduled order.
- Prize Distribution: Recognition of top performances for creativity, emotion, and impact.
- Closing Session: Constructive feedback from judges, emphasizing improvement and encouragement.

CREATIVE ESSENCE:

The stage witnessed a diverse blend of performances — from thought-provoking narratives to humorous and patriotic themes — leaving the audience deeply moved and entertained.

AUDIENCE ENGAGEMENT:

Around 100 attendees, including students and faculty, enthusiastically witnessed the competition. The participants' energy, originality, and confidence contributed immensely to the event's overall success.

4. Sponsorship

The event was independently organized and funded by Team DIL, with no external sponsorship involved.

5. Feedback and Suggestions

Feedback:

Both the audience and participants praised the well-coordinated setup, lighting, sound system, and the wide variety of acts. The choice of themes was highly appreciated for its diversity and emotional depth.

Suggestions:

It was proposed to expand audience outreach and include more light-hearted or humorous monoacts in future editions to balance the emotional tone.

6. Photos and Videos

The MonoAct Competition 2025 turned out to be a resounding success, inspiring students to take part in cultural events and refine their artistic expression. The combined efforts of the organising team, along with the valuable insights from the judges and participants, made the event both memorable and enriching.
