

On 19th August 2016, the play 'Umeed Ek nayi subah ki ' was organized by the Dramatics Society at Mini Auditorium. The play filled the students and faculty with national sentiment. The play tackled the issue of the struggle between Maoists and the government which has caused a lot of misery and apathy. They presented the viewpoints on the issue from various perspectives. This brought out the solution to the problem and thus a new daylight of peace for a better society.
